

Angela Huesman

Angela serves as the Chief Operating Officer at Lakeshore Advantage. In her role, Angela is a strategy implementor and manages the day to day operations.

Since joining the team in 2013 she has served as a talent subject matter expert and leads efforts to help area employers tackle their workforce challenges.

Prior to joining Lakeshore Advantage, Angela spent 10 years at Coldwell Banker as the Director of Corporate Relocation Services, working side by side with area employers to help them attract and retain talent.

Angela serves on the West Michigan Works! workforce development board, is on the Hello West Michigan advisory board and is also a member of the Discover Manufacturing leadership team. In her free time she likes to cook, garden, and spend time with her husband and two daughters.
